1. Introduction

Punjab Skill Development Mission (PSDM) (www.psdm.gov.in) is the nodal agency in the state of Punjab to ensure organization of skill training programs for the rural and urban youth through nationally accredited training partners.

It integrates the efforts of various departments and public and private stakeholders engaged in skilling the youth of the state through numerous skill development schemes such as DDU-GKY, NULM, BOCW, PMKVY-II, etc. and brings necessary scale, synergy, oversight and effective coordination in their implementation.

PSDM facilitates and monitors mobilization of eligible candidates at the grassroots level through empanelled training partners to participate in employment led and industry vetted hands-on skill training programs. The Mission after training the candidates provides them with opportunities of wage and self-employment.

In pursuance of its overall objective, the Punjab Skill Development Mission invites the expression of interest from reputed agencies to undertake the printing work for a magazine titled in English language highlighting and showcasing the real life stories of candidates whose life changed after undergoing skill training under Punjab Skill Development Mission.

The agency finalized will be assigned the work of designing based on the feedback and printing of copies of magazine titled Compendium of Success Stories and the assignment will be task specific. The special edition of the magazine will be circulated to govt functionaries, elected representatives, and other concerned stakeholders. The quotes will be valid for a period of six months from the date of submission of the proposal.
